

Do you have some interesting experience or research data to share with the computer science educator community? Did you miss the SIGCSE submission deadline? Or do you have the unquenched desire to sign up for yet another virtual conference? Consider submitting a paper, panel, or tutorial proposal by November 2!

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

PAPER/PANEL SUBMISSION DEADLINE: November 2, 2020

CCSC:SW

The 14th Annual Conference of the Consortium for Computing Sciences in Colleges: Southwest Region

Friday March 26th & Saturday March 27th, 2021
UC San Diego, La Jolla, CA (Virtual)

Paper Submissions - November 2, 2020

We invite research studies and experience reports related to computing education in all relevant areas and from K-12 to the university level.

Papers should be no longer than six pages, single-spaced, single-column layout. Papers will be double blind peer reviewed. Authors must omit all references to themselves and their institution in the manuscript and abstract for review. Accepted papers will be presented at the conference and published in The Journal of Computing Sciences in Colleges. If presented by the author, papers will also be available through the ACM Digital Library.

Please direct questions to Papers chair, Megan Thomas, at mthomas@cs.csustan.edu.

Panels & Tutorials - November 2, 2020

We invite you to submit proposals for panels and tutorials related to computing education. In a panel session, 3 or 4 experts (one of whom is the moderator) present their varied perspectives on a specific topic and then discuss those views both amongst themselves and with the audience. In a tutorial, one or more experts give instruction on a topic of interest. For additional information, visit our panels/tutorial page or contact Michael Shindler at mikes@uci.edu.

Lightning Talks - March 5, 2021

We invite all attendees to submit a proposal for 3-minute lightning talks. These talks can include solicitations for collaboration, presentation of novel teaching strategies, or informal presentations on any topic of interest to the community. Work that is being presented as a paper is ineligible for presentation as a lightning talk. For additional information, visit our lightning talk page or contact Paul Cao at yic242@eng.ucsd.edu.

Student Posters - March 12, 2021

Students are encouraged to submit abstracts for posters to be presented at the conference, describing computing related development or research that the students have recently undertaken. For additional information, visit our student poster page or contact Adam Blank at blank@caltech.edu.
